ATTIRE GUIDELINES:

Ladies:

1. All dresses need to be “prom ready”, in a “finished” state BEFORE approval can be given at the dress check. As a courtesy please do not bring unfinished/unaltered dresses.
2. If your dress has a slit, it must originate from the knee and extend to the floor.
3. Dresses should be tea to floor length.
4. Please bring all necessary undergarments that you will need to wear when you try on your dress. Remember, all proper undergarments are to be worn with your dress.
5. The back of the dress should be approximately no lower than the bottom of your shoulder blades. However, due to different shapes and body builds of each girl, or the style of the dress, the prom co-coordinators will make the final determination.
6. Concerning the issue of “cleavage”, when buying or making your dress, make sure the bodice is large enough to maintain “modesty” when jump dancing or leaning over. If there is too much cleavage showing, you will be asked to find another dress. Make sure that the side view is as modest as the front and back. (Webster’s definition of modesty is as follows= the quality or state of decency, decorum, lack of excesses. Dressing in a way that is considered to be unassuming, lack of pretentiousness, reasonable, decent.)
7. Make sure that your dress has strong, secure, sewn in strap(s), whether single or double to prevent a wardrobe malfunction.
8. To view examples of “prom ready” dresses, please go to the TEACH website and click on PROM.
9. If you have questions, feel free to send clear and full view picture(s) of the dress stating/showing exactly what the questionable aspect is, to us and we will return your call as soon as possible.
10. Dresses with any form of “cut-outs” will be accepted or rejected on a case by case basis. The “cut -outs” must be non-see thru.

 Should your dress fail to meet and maintain these guidelines during the prom, you will  purchase a BEACH long-sleeved T-shirt ($15) to be worn over your dress.

Gentlemen:

1. Guys will wear a tuxedo or a suit and tie.
2. Hair is to be neat and groomed.
3. No open toed shoes.

Once again, we are looking forward to seeing everyone this year and hope this set of guidelines will help make the prom from start to finish, a wonderful experience for each of you!
